LOCAL IMMIGRATION LAWYER TO ANSWER LEHIGH VALLEY IMMIGRANT COMMUNITY'S QUESTIONS AT UPCOMING VIRTUAL Q&A SESSION

WHAT: Free virtual Q&A session to answer questions regarding immigration law and personal rights. Discussion will include options for those who have overstayed their visa, can new citizens petition for family to successfully emigrate to the United States, and questions about the immigration process and requirements.

WHEN: Tuesday, August 25th at 6:00pm

WHERE: Virtual webinar – register for the Zoom meeting here

WHO: The Literacy Center will host the event, Attorney Michael Renneisen will answer attendees' questions

The Literacy Center serves many members of the Lehigh Valley's immigrant community. Understanding that gaining citizenship legally can be a confusing process, the nonprofit has partnered with Lehigh Immigration's Michael Renneisen, Esq. to offer pro-bono advice during this 90-minute Q&A session.

About The Literacy Center

The Literacy Center's mission is to deliver high-quality instruction, training and support for Lehigh Valley adults experiencing language, education, and employment barriers. TLC has been providing educational programs that help Lehigh Valley residents improve their skills since 1977. During the past forty-three years, over 30,000 adults have benefited from TLC's programs. To learn more, please visit www.theliteracycenter-lv.org.
